

Summer Sundays

Services begin at 10:30am

June 6

Walking a Sufi Path

Rev. Bruce Davis

Music: Jim Anderson, piano;

Intergenerational Choir, If You Want to Sing Out, Sing Out by Cat Stevens

Special Event: New Member Ingathering, Bridging Ceremony

Islamic theology had become a legalistic and fundamentalist doctrine by the ninth century. Sufism, a mystical counter movement, offered spiritual freedom and direct experience of transcendence. Are we in such a time of renewal?

June 13

Difficult Conversations

Music: Evergreen Choir, Song of the Open Road by Stan Harte

Special Event: RE's Last Day - Comeford Park, Annual Meeting after Service

We encounter them in all parts of our life: partners, friends, family, work, and community. These hard conversations can be a struggle to get through. Why are they so difficult, and how can we become better able to engage in them successfully?

June 20

Honoring Our Men

Rev. Judith Laxer

Summer Services Begin

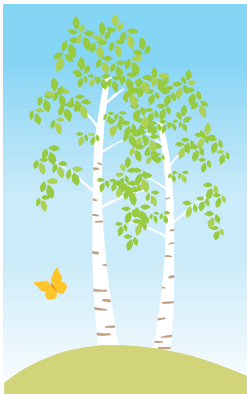

Worship Associate: Pam Gerke

Gaia's Temple, Seattle

Music: Pam Gerke; Gayle Sells, piano

Special Event: Split Plate Offering

Goddess worship is not just for women! Join us on Father's Day for a service of love for our men and learn more about the Divine Partnership at the core of Pagan spirituality. At the time of the Summer Solstice, we honor the God as the Sun King and offer gratitude for His radiance.
